2. If we put in a price for 2024 and 2025, are we able to adjust/negotiate the price when the time gets closer to the extension, or would we be locked in at the prices we put in the bid?

Due to the current market conditions bidders will NOT be required to submit a price for 2024 or 2025. However, if a bidder submits a price that will be the only price considered for an extension.
